

The Horn Model of Guardianship Adapted for the Family Law Act

John-Paul Boyd
April 2013

The guardian with the majority of parenting time with the child will exercise all parental responsibilities in respect of the child and the other guardian(s) will have the right:

1. to be informed of the child's medical and dental practitioners;
2. to contact the child's medical and dental practitioners and obtain the child's medical and dental records;
3. to be consulted with respect to the selection of the child's alternative caregivers, such as daycare and preschool;
4. to consult with the children's alternative caregivers and teachers;
5. to be informed of events at the child's schools or daycare so that the parent without primary care may attend;
6. to be informed of parent/teacher nights so that the other guardian(s) may attend;
7. to be consulted with respect to any significant health issues relating to the child; and,
8. to be consulted with respect to any significant change in the child's social environment.
