

The Horn Model of Guardianship Adapted for the Custody under the Divorce Act

John-Paul Boyd
April 2013

The spouses will have joint custody of the child and the spouse without the child's primary residence will have the right:

1. to be informed of the child's medical and dental practitioners;
2. to contact the child's medical and dental practitioners and obtain the child's medical and dental records;
3. to be consulted with respect to the selection of the child's alternative caregivers, such as daycare and preschool;
4. to consult with the children's alternative caregivers and teachers;
5. to be informed of events at the child's schools or daycare so that the parent without primary care may attend;
6. to be informed of parent/teacher nights so that the spouse may attend;
7. to be consulted with respect to any significant health issues relating to the child; and,
8. to be consulted with respect to any significant change in the child's social environment.
