Listening Package

Driving in BC: Safe Driving

Lesson Objectives

---

- Identify the rules and penalties associated with safe driving, including impaired driving, seat belts, child car seats, cell phones and pedestrians
- Identify where to get more information about safe driving

Instructions for the Teacher

These listening tasks are based on the video on the Driving in BC Lesson Module page at http://wiki.clicklaw.bc.ca/index.php/Driving\_in\_BC\_Lesson\_Module.

The following listening tasks have been modelled on the CLB 7-10 Exit Assessment Tasks that CLB 7/8 students take to progress or exit their programs. You may choose to use the tasks in a variety of ways:

- As a practice test
  - do not allow dictionaries or other supports
  - give each student a copy of the listening task
  - read the instructions
  - play the video twice through without stopping, pausing for 30 seconds between viewing
  - gather the tests and score them
- As listening skills development
  - generate interest and activate prior knowledge
  - set a gist task (Who? Relationship? Mood?)
  - watch, confer with small groups
  - watch, stop, predict, confirm
  - give listening tasks (below)
  - watch, confer with small groups
  - discuss content of videos
  - role play a related workplace situation
- As self-study
  - assign as in-class, online or at home work

Driving in BC: Safe Driving

Video Script

---

Mark: Hey Dad, I passed my driver's test dad.

Jeff: Good for you, son.

Mark: Ya, can we go for a drive? Like, we could go up the Valley or we could go to Whistler, you know, with the snow right now the fresh powder would be beautiful.

(Jeff starts daydreaming)

(Mark gets into a car and does not put on his seat belt, he then proceeds to speed off and throws a beer can out the window. Mark speeds through a school zone and then speeds through a red light while talking on his cell phone. Speeding even faster Mark crashes the car)

(Mark jingles the car keys to bring Jeff out of his daydream)

Mark: Dad!?

Jeff: Oh, you know, I think we need to have a talk.

Mark: We talk later. Let's just go for a drive.

Jeff: No, I think we need to talk now, this is important.

Mark: Okay, fine.

Jeff: Look, having a driver's license is a big responsibility, your vehicle is basically a 5,000-pound weapon that you are in control and in care of, and it must be treated with respect. Do you understand?

Mark: Ya, totally!

Jeff: The rules of the road are set up for safety of you and the safety of others. They must be respected, not only for safety but tickets can cause you to lose points and you can lose your license.

Mark: I promise I'll be careful.

Jeff: Okay, let's go.

Mark: Alright, awesome!
