

Act it out! Practice asking for and giving instructions.

Start like this:

A: Hi, Sarah. How's it going? Did you get to the Farmer's Market?

B: No, I didn't. In the end, I just decided it was too far to bus.

A: Oh, what a shame.

B: Hey. You have your driver's license, right? What do I need to do to get mine?

Finish like this:

B: Ok, so before I book the road test, I have to pass the knowledge test.

A: That's right.

B: Wow, I'm glad I asked you. You've saved me a lot of time.

A: Hey, no problem. I'm happy to help. I can help you study if you want.

B: Really? That's awesome, thanks. I'll take you up on that.

A: Please do. Anyway, I've got to run. Call me when you want to get together to study.

B: OK. Thanks again, Sarah. Have a good weekend.

A: You, too. See you.

Giving Instructions

Asking how to do something

- Hey. You have your driver's license, right? What do I need to do to get mine?
- Cindy, I need to get my driver's license. Do you know how I can do that?

Describing how to do something

- Oh, yeah. It's pretty easy. First, go to the ____, then take the ____. Finally, ____.
- Make sure you _____.
- Don't forget to _____

Asking for clarification

- Woah. Slow down. I need to write this down.
- Ok, so before I can _____, I have to _____.
- What happens if _____.
